

From anguish to reconciliation

An evening at the Canadian
Museum for Human Rights

Wednesday, April 20, 2016

Known as the “Gaza Doctor,” Dr. Izzeldin Abuelaish lost three daughters and a niece during an Israeli armed assault on Gaza in 2009. Despite this tragedy, or because of it, he promotes peace across borders. He is a global human rights defender and now lives in Toronto. Find out why he encourages us not to hate.

7:00 p.m.

Stuart Clark Garden of Contemplation

Included with general admission

Seating is limited

CANADIAN MUSEUM FOR HUMAN RIGHTS

humanrights.ca

Canada